

Chaque Enfant Compte Every Child Matters Dunèna Ke Shàwkwàthàn K'annàta Jè'

École Whitehorse Elementary School ~
Orange Shirt Day - Honouring our National
Truth and Reconciliation Day
Wednesday, September 29, 2021

On Wednesday, students planted their hearts on our front lawn. In creating this Garden of Hearts, we are honouring memories and planting dreams. We honour residential school survivors and their families as well as the legacy of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada.

Every heart is as unique as each child who attended residential school.